

Online Food and Nutrition Teaching Resources

Developed at Edith Cowan University, Refresh.ED provides K–10 teachers with a series of free online food and nutrition teaching and professional learning materials. These materials are designed to support teachers to include food and nutrition content across different learning areas, and at different year levels. Visit www.refreshedschools.health.wa.gov.au to find out more.

This three hour workshop will introduce secondary school teachers to Refresh.ED and the diversity of nutrition topics sequenced across the year levels Year 7 to Year 10. There is no cost to attend this workshop and afternoon tea will be provided.
